MESSAGE OF DIAZ WILL NOT BE ACCEPTABLE TO MEXICAN INSURRECTOS

Now Believed That Peace Negotiations Will be Stopped and War Continued

UPRISING MAY OCCUR OVER ALL NORTHERN MEXICO

American Tourists Say All Countryside is Armed and Awaiting Signal of Revolt---Review of Uncle Sam's "Maneuvers" Division is Occurring at Camp Sam Houston This Afternoon.

Can Antonio, Texas, April 1.—The scene of greatest interest shifted today from San Antonio to Mexico City, where the Mexican congress met for the first time since the insurrection became serious and since the resignations of cabinet members were forced by President Diaz. Further negotiations toward peace have hinged very largely on the nature of the message Diaz sent to congress.

Members of the revolutionary Junta here declared this morning long before the Mexican congress convened that they knew the whole scope of the message and that they believed its tenor would not be acceptable to Francisco I. Madero, Jr., and other insurrecto leaders in the field.

Although claiming to have copies of the president's message insurrectos here refused to tell its import, but expressed a belief that the insurrecto army will take sufficient umbrage from Diaz's words to demand that all peace negotiations be stopped and that the war continue.

A signal for a continuation of war, the revolutionary junta declares will likewise be a signal for an uprising covering the whole of Northern Mexico, which they claim is already organized and prepared to throw off the yoke of Diaz as soon as they know the war is to go on.

Americans arriving from Monterey declare their belief that the whole countryside is armed, merely waiting a signal to revolt.

Great interest is attached to the review of the first "maneuver" division this afternoon by Major General Carter commanding. This is actually the first time in American history that a vision of regulars has ever been reviewed, save in war time.

Although on a war footing 19,850 make up the division the present force consists of only about 9,000 fighting men; but even this is the greatest force of regulars ever mobilized in America except in case of war. Even the general officers commanding never before saw a brigade assembled and admit that handling it even in review is a problem they know only in thetory. Major Von Sewarts, the German attache, Colonel MacLachlan, British, and Count DeChambrun French will be guests of the government at today's review.

Washington, April 1.—A report receive dhere early today from Mexico City told of the destruction of bridges last night at Punta Ixtla on the Cuernavaca branch of the National Railways of Mexico. This line is the only one leading into the state of Guerrero where there have been several uprisings recently, and will cut off the only means of rushing troops to Acapulco. Punta Ixtla is about two hours out of Mexico City in the mountains.

DEFEAT OF THE SCHOOLBOOK BILL MAY BE PROBED

Columbus, April 1. — Senator Henry L. Yount author of the bill providing for village and township uniformity text books, announced yesterday that he would introduce a resolution providing for an investigation of the methods used by the book trust in beating his bill. The measure fought by the representatives of the large book companies was defeated in the senate Tuesday.

The Democratic platform guarantees the enactment of a uniform text book, so the Democrats who bolted are being bitterly denounced, and Senator Yount promises to reveal some startling facts. The bill was reconsidered yesterday and will again come up for a vote the latter part of next week.

Governor Harmon and State School Commissioner-elect Miller are both displeased with the action of the senate in defeating the Yount bill, and they will endeavor to have it passed next week.

"I think the bill a good one," said the Governor, "and I wish to give it my indorsement. The people are paying excessive prices for books and the bill offers a remedy. The burden of buying books falls upon those least able to bear it, and when they change residence from one county or township to another they must buy over again.

"I am sorry to hear of the stand taken by Democrats in the fact of party pledges. What sort of influence can be brought upon the legislators to turn votes against such a measure? It would be interesting to know how they work it."

School Commissioner Miller has written an open letter deploring the defeat of the bill and asserting that his department will work in favor of uniformity during his term.

FAVOR BETTER FIRE PROTECTION

Columbus, O., April 1.—Governor Harmon has landed with both feet in the fight for better fire protection in the cities. He has ordered the drafting of a bill to give the state inspection department full power to remedy conditions and make the factories safe. The attorney general's office will help draft the bill and Senator J. J. Hudson of Portsmouth will introduce it. Strong efforts will be made to have it enacted into law at once.

TOM JOHNSON'S ANNIVERSARY AS MAYOR

Cleveland, April 1.—Today being the tenth anniversary of Tom Johnson's first election as mayor, he announced that if his health improved he would run again. His recovery is still progressing, but the doctors expect a relapse soon.

OXFORD CREW DEFEATED THE CAMBRIDGE BOYS

London, April 1.—Rowing easily the Oxford crew defeated Cambridge in the annual race today before about 100,000 people, and established a new mark of 18 minutes and 29 seconds for the 4¼ miles. Oxford took the lead at the start and was never headed. Today's was the sixty-seventh race and Oxford's thirty-seventh victory. As usual the race was a big social attraction and many notables were among the spectators. The Prince of Wales was present and watched the race from the [illegible] launch.

NOTHING SLOW ABOUT SCOTT

Florence [illegible] April 1. — Scott Kunsman, a Chicago railroad man, came here last week with the body of his second wife who died in Chicago. Today he was married to Miss Lucy Everly, his first wife, who secured a divorce in 1904.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY TO DAVID J. JONES

Ex-Truant Officer and Well Known Resident Succumbs to Paralytic Attack.

The announcement of the death of David J. Jones, which occurred at his home, 94 Granville street, about 6:30 o'clock Saturday morning will come as a severe shock to his many friends in Newark and Licking county. His death was the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained about 1 o'clock Saturday morning. From the time he sustained the stroke he grew rapidly worse and passed peacefully away in the early morning, surrounded by the members of his family. He had been in poor health for the past four of five years.

About four years ago he sustained a slight stroke of paralysis, which affected his limbs, and about a year ago he was forced to resign the position of truant officer for the public schools of Newark, wich position he had held for 13 years. He was a member of Lemert Post, No. 71, G. A. R., the Modern Woodmen of America and the Maccabees.

D. J. JONES.

The deceased is survived by his widow and three children, Mrs. W. F. Boggs, Mrs. Hiram Eagye and Jesse D. Jones, all of this city, and six grandchildren. A son, Dee Jones died ten years ago on the sixth of this month.

The funeral services will be held from the late residence of the deceased on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of Lemert Post, No. 71, G. A. R., of which he was a member, and the interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mr. Jones was born in 1839 at Newton Falls, N. Y. At the age of 9 months he removed to Licking county, O., with his parents, and he had lived in Newark all of that time with the exception of one year. He was a shoemaker by trade and worked at this occupation until the breaking out of the Civil War in 1861, when he enlisted in the first company raised in Licking county, Company H, Third Ohio, under Captain McDougal. He enlisted as a private for three months but was retained six months. In 1862 he was commissioned as second lieutenant and recruited 38 men for the 95th Ohio, but later was transferred with his men to the 45th Ohio, receiving a promotion to first lieutenant. In March, 1863, at the battle of Dutton Hill, Ky., he was shot through the left breast, fracturing two ribs. He was sent home, where he remained three months, when he returned to a convalescent hospital at Camp Nelson, Ky. In the spring he tendered his resignation and returned to Newark, resuming his work at the cobbler's bench.

In 1881 he became a member of the Newark police force, holding this position for two years. He was also a private detective for the B. & O. Railroad Co. for some time.

In 1895 he was appointed truant officer and held that position until about a year ago, when he was forced to resign on account of his health. During the time he held the position of truant officer, he became noted for his charitable work, and devoted much of his time to providing food and clothing for the poor of the city. The offerings were furnished by the school children but Mr. Jones, unassisted and without any recompense except that afforded him by seeing their happy faces, delivered these bundles, working hard the greater part of the holiday, while others were resting. Unlike most truant officers, he was greatly loved by the children, and when they met him on the street, their greeting was ample proof of their respect for him.

During his long service as truant officer he merited and received the undivided praise of all who were in a position to know and understand the work in which he was engaged. [illegible] it is said that he knew personally every needy family in the city.

The passing of D. J. Jones will not only be mourned by the family and relatives but will be sincerely regretted by the community at large.

WILL HOLD FUNERAL OF MURDERED GIRL SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Relatives and friends of Elsie Henthorn, the [illegible]-year-old schoolgirl of Lima township, whom Donald Moreland is accused of having murdered will undoubtedly turn out in large numbers Sunday afternoon to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of the little girl, who was well known in Pataskala, where the funeral will be held from the Methodist church at 1 o'clock.

ELSIE HENTHORN,
Murdered on Her Way Home From School Near Pataskala Thursday Evening.

Elsie was well known in Pataskala and visited there Monday last. She also has two aunts living in Columbus, Mrs. Rose Shambaugh and Mrs. Nellie Rush. They were horrified when they learned of the tragedy.

They had not seen their niece since February 2, when they both attended the funeral of the girl's father.

Mrs. Shambaugh said she had received several letters from Elsie since that time, and she seemed to be happy and not troubled.

Martin Henthorne, the girl's father, had lived at Beech's Corners with his brother, Ed., a former policeman on the Columbus force. He was one of the [illegible] that were dismissed during the street car strike for refusing to ride the cars.

MORELAND IN STATE OF NERVOUS COLLAPSE.

Donald Moreland, who is charged with the murder of little 14-year-old Elsie Henthorn who resided with her mother near Pataskala, and who is confined in the county jail, has been in a state of nervous collapse ever since he was brought to Newark by Sheriff Slabaugh, and has been under the care of Dr. H. B. Anderson. Saturday at noon he was reported as being somewhat better. Friday and Saturday he was in very bad shape. He is absolutely reticent as to the crime and says little and appears not to realize the enormity of the offense.

RARE AZTEC POTTTERY UNEARTHED.

At Zanesville Friday a piece of rare pottery was found in the shape of an urn which had been buried for hundreds of years, from the evidences of antiquity it bore. It is presumably a relic of the ancient Aztecs, who were experts in the forming of earthenware vessels and the inscription it bore lends color to this theory. The latter part of it can be deciphered easily and can be identified, but several experts in Zanesville and Newark have attempted the first part unsuccessfully. The letters are very plain, however, and are of Roman style, reading as follows: Thi sist hef ir sto fap ril " See"

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS HONORS CONGRESSMAN ASHBROOK BY CHOOSING HIM SECRETARY

Washington, April 1. Behind locked, guarded doors the house Democrats are holding their first caucus today. The first business was the election of house officials and the adoption of the report of the committee of accounts recommending that the house pay off be cut $180,000 annually.

The naming of committees will be the last business handled.

Representative Ashbrook of Ohio was chosen caucus secretary.

In addition to eliminating about one-third of the present members of house employes the report abolished the following committees: Militia, Pacific railroads ventilation and acoustics, private land claims, levees and improvements on the Mississippi and manufactures. Champ Clark made a strong speech on the desirability of economy saying that while it would be poor policy to cripple the efficiency of any department, care should be taken to cause no unnecessary expense.

CLAIMS GAYNOR TOLD UNTRUTH

New York, April 1.—A direct charge that Mayor Gaynor told an untruth when he said New York is a clean city was made by Magistrate Corrigon today. The later challenged the mayor to remove him. The issue raised by Corrigon's claim, that the police are demoralized and vice is rampant, may have sensational results.

The magistrate's friends may attempt to cause Mayor Gaynor's removal. They are preparing to take the entire matter before the grand jury. Gaynor said today that his recent statement that New York was clean was sufficient answer to Corrigan's claims.

STEAM ROADS

Must Supply Switching Connections for Electric Lines in Interest of Nearby Farmers.

Washington, April 1.—In the interest of farmers living close to electric lines and far from steam railroads, the interstate commerce commission today decided that steam railroads must supply switching connections and through rates to electric lines whenever requested.

This action followed the refusal of the B. & O. Southwestern and the N. & W. to establish connections with the Cincinnati and Columbus electric line.

No Law In Virginia To Prevent Races And Personal Bets

Richmond, Va., April 1.—Attorney-General Williams of Virginia has notified Gov. Mann that he cannot legally prevent the spring racing meeting of the Jamestown Jockey club, which opens on April 5. The attorney-general says that there is nothing in the law of Virginia to prohibit personal bets such as will be made at the coming meeting and which was the mode of betting there all last year.

EQUIPPING NEW BUILDING WITH A STEEL VAULT

Mr. C. H. Bolin, who recently purchased the two-story brick business building on East Main street, in the East End formerly owned by Ambrose Bolin, which contained two business rooms, has made some great improvements in the building. He has enlarged the store rooms and has had an additional store room added, and has raised the building to full three stories. The second and third floors contain about forty rooms and would make an ideal place for a small hotel. One of the store rooms has been equipped with a large steel vault, five x five and eight feet in height, the whole being reinforced by a concrete wall twelve inches in thickness. It would make a first class room for a bank. When all the improvements are completed this will be one of the finest business buildings in the hustling East End.

M'FARLAND IN POOR CONDITION BOUT POSTPONED

New York, April 1.—A telegram from Packey McFarland of Chicago was received here Friday, informing the management of the Fairmont Athletic club that he could not get into condition in season for his fight with Tommy Murphy, scheduled for Tuesday, April 4. As both boxers refuse to go on during holy week, the bout was accordingly postponed until April 18.

BLIND MAN

Who Begged to Be Electrocuted is Dying at Battle Creek, Mich., of Brain Fever.

Battle Creek, Mich., April 1. — Thomas MacKenzie, the blind man who begged four governors to electrocute him and end his poverty, is dying of brain fever. He has no desire to recover and this handicaps the physicians. Exposure and worry brought on the disease.

Hackettstown, N. J. Because he couldn't achieve the reforms he had promised Mayor Shafer Sigler committed suicide by cutting his throat.

JUDGE O'GORMAN WILL SUCCEED SENATOR DEPEW

Albany, N. Y., April 1.—Amid the stirring rendition of songs by legislators, who marched about the hall in lockstep, the United States senatorial deadlock was broken last night on the sixty-fourth ballot and Supreme Court Judge James Aloysius O'Gorman, grand sachem of Tammany hall was chosen as Chauncey M. Depew's successor. He got 112 votes, against 80 cast for his Republican opponent.

After a three months' battle, during which the Democracy of the state has been torn to shreds, and William F. Sheehan, Daniel F. Cohalan and a score more of his favorites have been rejected, Charles F. Murphy corralled just enough insurgents to give him a majority for the last man on his string.

Dashing here on an early morning train, the Tammany boss induced 14 of 20 insurgents in conference at the home of Senator Franklin D. Roosevelt, to pledge themselves for O'Gorman. When the break came there was a stampede among the Democrats to make O'Gorman's selection unanimous.

THOUSANDS GRABBED BY THE CLERKS

Attorney General Hogan Rules Money Must be Returned

WAS AN OLD PRACTICE

But Ex-Supreme Court Attaches Had No Right to Collect Printing Commissions.

Columbus, O., April 1.—That clerks of the Ohio supreme court have been receiving for years a commission of 10 per cent from the persons printing briefs and records in cases filed in that tribunal was disclosed today through an opinion rendered by Attorney General Timothy S. Hogan to Frank E. McKean, the present occupant of the clerk's office.

Mr. McKean was offered the same "perquisite" by the printer, F. H. Toothaker of this city, and was informed that it was a custom of many years' standing in the department.

Not being satisfied with the regularity of the proposition, Clerk McKean requested an official construction from the attorney general, whose decision contains a vigorous declaration that the practice was illegal and that it is the duty of the clerk to call the attention of the members of the supreme court to the conditions.

The attorney general holds that the clerks never were entitled to the commissions that they cannot be construed as fees, and that the money should be returned to the litigants who transmitted it to the clerk's office. He holds that the cost of printing should have been taxed at 90 per cent of the sums included in the bill of costs and that it is the duty of the state of Ohio to recover from the offending clerks the amounts illegally received, the same to be held for the benefit of those who were taxed the costs in the cases.

The former clerks who are mentioned in the proceedings today are John S. McNutt of Columbiana county; Joseph Obermyre of Hamilton county, but now of this city, and Lawson Emerson, of Belmont county but now of Utah.

The amount involved has not yet been computed, but it is said to amount to many thousands of dollars.

It is not known how far back this practice has continued, as it was in 1883 that the clerk was first charged with the duty of supervising the printing of these records. It will require an investigation into the accounts of the former clerks and the printers employed to do the work. Much will depend upon the action of Chief Justice William T. Spear and his associates, who today received official notification from Clerk McKean of the facts and of the ruling of the attorney general in the premises.

"WETS" MADE A BIG CLEAN-UP

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1. — The "wets" made another big clean-up against Anti-Saloon League forces carrying the following cities and towns:

Martinsville, majority 130, Union City, 2, Danville, 37; Brownsburg, 17.

The "dry" forces carried Redkey by 118. The "drys" also won in a rural township in Sullivan county.

There were no saloons in territory where elections were held Thursday. There have been no saloons in Danville for many years. Martinsville has been "dry" for nearly three years. At Martinsville the church bells were rung at 5 a. m. to arouse the anti-saloon forces.

The fight was bitter. Harry Mills, former policeman at Martinsville, was arrested, charged with vote buying.

The contest at Union City was very hard fought. It is probable that the "drys" will file a contest.

The "dry" element won easily at Redkey. Up to the present fully 90 per cent of the cities voted "dry" two years ago by the farmers have voted "wet" under the new law.

ARE EXPECTING RESIGNATION OF PREMIER CANALEAS

Madrid, April 1.—The resignation of Premier Canaleas is expected at an yminute here and the Republicans are jubilant. They hope to force the government to adopt repressive tactics and so bring on a rebellion.

OBITUARY

ALBERT BUTT.

Albert Butt, who came here from Clairmount, Va., about three weeks ago for a visit with his brother, John Butt of 134 Miller street, whom he had not seen for a number of years, died at the home of his brother Saturday morning at 2:15 o'clock. When he came from Virginia he was in very poor health and since his arrival he has rapidly grown worse until death relieved him of his sufferings. The immediate cause of his death was pneumonia. The deceased was aged about 52 years. He was born in Delaware county in 1858, and lived in this part of the country for some years, when he went to Virginia. He is survived by two brothers, John Butt of this city and Henry Butt of Clairmount, Va.

The funeral services will be held from the home, 134 Miller street, Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Mr. Dillin, pastor of the Christian Union church. Interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

SAMUEL SHANK.

Samuel Shank, aged 52, died at his home on Crilly avenue at 6 o'clock after a long illness of tuberculosis. He leaves a widow and three children.

The funeral will take place from the home at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Rev. J. A. Bennett conducting the services. Interment in Evans' cemetery, east of St. Louisville.

MARTIN KELLOGG PASCO.

The body of Martin Kellogg Pasco, aged 70 years, who died at his home in Berea, Ky., arrived in Newark Saturday noon and will be taken to the home of Miss Daisy Cherry on Locust street, where the funeral will be held Sunday. Interment being made in Fairmount cemetery.

MRS. EARL DANGLER.

Mrs. Earl Dangler, aged 23 years, died at the City Hospital late Friday afternoon. Mrs. Dangler's home is in Utica, and she leaves a husband and three children. Death resulted from peritonitis.

The body will be taken to her old home in Greenville, O., at 5 o'clock Sunday morning, and interment will be made there.

A SAINTLY MOTHER HAS FALLEN IN ISRAEL.

Mrs. Sarah Miles, died March 20, 1911, at the home of C. H. Fisk, near Wilkins' Corners. Mrs. Miles was born in Eden township, Licking county, February 27, 1825, therefore was 85 years and 23 days old. Her parents were James and Mary J. Lyons, who emigrated from the North of Ireland in the year 1816. Mr. Lyons came from County Antrim and Mrs. Mary J. Lyttle-Lyons coming from County Down, which surrounds Belfast, Ireland.

They had never met until on board the ship on which they were sailing to the new world. They being of the same nationality and of the same Christian faith, Seceders, made a lasting acquaintance during the six weeks and three days they were on the Atlantic ocean. The reader must remember the ocean steamer was then unknown. This acquaintance culminated in the marriage of Mr. James Lyons and Mary J. Lyttle at Pittsburg in 1818. On the 12th day of November, 1819, William, their oldest son, was born at Pittsburg and on the 22nd day of May, 1822, James L. Lyons, was born at Shirtee Creek, 12 miles from Pittsburg; soon after the birth of the second son, the father obtained a land warrant from the government and made a trip a-foot from Pittsburg, stopping at the famous Booze tavern, beyond Coshocton to Eden township to view the sight of his future home. He moved his little family in 1824 to the home of a cousin, which was about three miles northwest of what is now known as Parity, Eden township, or on the farm now owned by Mrs. G. W. Marriott. Mr. Lyons being a mechanic immediately set about to build a cabin in his forest home and moved his family therein. With the vigor of sturdy manhood, he began clearing the two hundred acre farm. In this cabin on February 27, 1825, Sarah, the subject of this sketch, was born. The old adage was true of this locality when this cabin was built, "Not a stick was amiss." Wolves howled about the door at night; the forest was full of game; not infrequently the dusky man of the forest looked in at the open door and asked for a morsel to eat, there being a remnant of the Delaware tribe; a small camp of Indians, below what is now Bladensburg, of which Walkatomika was the chief; also there were some of the Wyandots near Upper Sandusky, where the missionaries had established a mission. This mission church is still preserved.

Under these circumstances, Mrs. Miles was born of that sturdy Irish stock which for a century has made our best citizens. She being the older girl was soon taught to weave and this young girl spun and wove all the wearing material for the family. As the family developed Sarah would often stay with the mother while the father went to the nearest market, which was Zanesville, for salt and other farm necessities. Frequently the mother and these older children remained in the cabin and looked after the affairs of the new farm while the father walked back to Pittsburg on business.

This girl worked both indoors and out in this pioneer struggle; often at night she took care of the children while the mother went into the clearing and helped burn the brush the father had piled during the previous days. The faithful dog was always her company. It was a frequent occurrence to find the dog attacking a copper-head or a rattler, which he would always despatch before he left it. This watchful servant would lie near the door and if he saw harm approaching, he always gave the warning and offered his services. Sarah grew up to womanhood under these circumstances—doing nearly all the housework, making clothing, etc., for a large family.

At this time there are three of this family yet living, James L. Lyons, aged eighty-nine, Isabelle Baird, aged eighty-one, Andrew J. Lyons, aged seventy-eight, the last two live in the west.

When Sarah was 22 years old she united with the United Presbyterian church at Martinsburg, Ohio. This church was the outgrowth of the Seceder church and Associate Reform church, which had united. After she married Mr. Miles she united with the Protestant Episcopal church. As she grew older it was always said of her "She looked well to the ways of her household and never ate the bread of idleness."

In 1864 William Miles, a prosperous farmer, made propositions of marriage to her and in April of said year she married Mr. Miles, who had been married once before, having a family of seven children, the oldest girl being about 15 years old. She took charge of this home and how well she succeeded in being a good mother to these children, for this information we hope the reader will ask any of them. Mr. Miles died some twenty years ago and left a good farm for his wife's maintenance. As the children married, it soon left the widow alone; then there was a vieing among these girls for the privilege of ministering to the wants of this foster-mother in her declining years. She finally made choice to live with Mrs. C. H. Fisk, a daughter, where she died. It is one of the greatest ethical studies to see the devotion of this family to "Grandma," as she was lovingly called, for the reason of the many grandchildren, who almost worshiped her.

The writer has seen many phases of life, but has never seen such devotion to an aged mother—so much general sorrow at her departure.

From the beginning of her sickness until she was laid to rest, no one but her children administered to her wants; six of her grandchildren were the pall-bearers. Her remains were followed by a large concourse of relatives and friends, among whom was her only brother in this part of the country, the said L. J. Lyons, now 89 years old, to the Miles chapel, where services were conducted by the Rev. Henderson, assisted by a male quartet from Newark, Ohio. After this impressive service her remains were tenderly committed to the grave by the side of her husband, who departed this life several years ago.

There should be no regret, excepting we are never willing to give up our loved ones. We are assured, however, that she had fought a good fight, and had finished her course; a crown of righteousness was laid up for her in eternal glory.

Tax Exempt Municipal BONDS

We are selling Municipal Bonds, free from taxation, issued by large, prosperous and progressive cities,

TO NET THE PURCHASER FROM 3.75 TO 4.10%

These bonds are regarded by the most conservative bankers and financiers as the safest of all known investments, because they are backed by the power to levy taxes to raise the money with which to pay them.

The bonds which we are offering were purchased outright and are owned by the State-Security Bank of Zanesville, Ohio, after a careful and thorough investigation of the legality and the splendid security back of them.

In a few weeks you will be called upon to list your money for taxation.

Consider our proposition and get our prices before purchasing elsewhere.

1911 OFFICIAL SCHEDULE OHIO STATE LEAGUE 1911

The schedule for the Ohio State League published today is the work of men who gave the matter much careful thought and, from reports not a city in the circuit has a kick to register, which is really remarkable. Every city has 10 Sunday games scheduled. Chillicothe, Lancaster, Marion and Lima have one holiday date (with two games), while Newark, Portsmouth, Springfield and Hamilton have two such dates. The holidays are Decoration Day, July 4th and Labor Day.

The opening games April 20, will be as follows: Portsmouth at Newark, Lancaster at Chillicothe, Lima at Hamilton, Marion at Springfield.

SHORT SPORT

Richie, the Cub pitcher, who disobeyed training rules and was disciplined by Manager Chance, saw Chance and told him he was very sorry for the manner in which he behaved at Nashville. Chance came right back and said that the pitcher could go right along as if nothing had happened.

No wonder the Cubs will play their heads off for such a man. He is human and has never been troubled with an enlarged cranium.

Hans Wagner, Tommy Leach, George Gibson and Fred Clarke have all made sincere statements to the effect that the pennant in the National league is as good as won for the Pirates. Nobody will count them outside of the Pirates.

Catcher Ragsdale, who performed behind the bat for the Portsmouth club of the Ohio State league part of last season, has earned a regular berth for himself in the catching department of the Buffalo club in the Eastern league.

The first practice game of the Hamilton club in the Ohio State league will be played in Hamilton Sunday with the Toledo Mud Hens of the American Association. Manager Barton will give as many of his players as possible a chance to show.

Sheldon Lejeune of the Brooklyn ball team was seriously injured in an automobile crash late yesterday afternoon. He was one of a party of four taking a ride over the city. The car skidded, smashed into a fence and was demolished. Others in the party received slight bruises.

First Baseman Morrissey, who last season made a brilliant record with the Syracuse university team, will play with Zanesville of the Central league, his terms having been accepted by Manager Baldy. The young player will not report to Zanesville until after graduation, which will be in June.

Plans for a stadium at Princeton are maturing, according to an announcement from the graduate advisory committee.

It is planned to secure a permanent football field with seating accommodations for 40,000 persons.

Charles Reilh, the heavyweight of the Ohio league last season, who played the first sack and other positions on the Lancaster club, is touted as the manager of the Lanks for the coming season.

Marion players will be ordered to report during the first part of next week, and it is the intention to have every player here not later than Wednesday. Practice will be begun as soon as a few of the men arrive.

Marion fans who have been uneasy about the strength of the catching department of the local team, can now rest much easier. Catcher Smith, who was turned over to Marion by Monte Cross, manager of the Scranton club and from whom no word could be received, will undoubtedly be the leading receiver the coming season. A letter was received from Smith accepting terms.

Branch Rickey, who has been seen often in Granville and Newark in football and baseball contests, while with Ohio Wesleyan, has been secured to coach the University of Michigan baseball squad for 1912. This means that [illegible] V. St. John, the present coach, will remain at Delaware.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of the powers conferred upon the undersigned by Item Seven of the last Will and Testament of Mary A. Thomas, deceased, and recorded in Vol. [illegible] of the Record of Wills, Probate Judge's office, Licking County, Ohio, at page [illegible], I will offer for sale at private sale either for cash or on terms of one-third of purchase price cash in hand, the balance in three equal annual payments with interest, secured by mortgage on the premises sold, the following described real estate, of which the said Mary A. Thomas died seized:

Situate in the County of Licking and the State of Ohio and in the City of Newark, and being in lot number three thousand four hundred and forty [illegible] as designated and described in the amended plat of Woodside Addition to the City of Newark as recorded in Vol. [illegible] of Plats, page 155, in the Recorder's office of said County, and being the same real estate conveyed to the said Mary A. Thomas by William E. Wiemer and Laura L. Wiemer, his wife, by deed dated August 27, 1905, and recorded in Vol. [illegible] of Deeds, Recorder's office, Licking County, Ohio, page 401, reference to which is hereby made.

The property is No. 252 Granville St., Newark, Ohio.

Appraised at $4000.00.

The undersigned will receive sealed bids for the purchase of this property on or before Monday, the 10th day of April, 1911, at 12 o'clock noon, reserving the right to reject any and all bids.

OFFICIALS WHO WILL ENDEAVOR TO GUIDE MOLDERS TO VICTORY

AL NEWNHAM

Manager of the Newark Baseball Club

BERT BLUE

Coach of the Newark Team.

FIRST EXHIBITION GAME WILL OCCUR MONDAY APRIL 3

The same sad old story is told by the men who have been anxiously watching for a good opportunity to get in some good baseball practice. Bad weather, yes of the worst kind, makes it little short of impossible to do any work that will count in getting the players in the best of shape. In spite of all these handicaps, Manager Newnham had the squad out on Saturday and drilling in batting and fielding practice but the game between the Vets and Colts had to be postponed, as will that for Sunday between the same teams. The diamond at Wehrle park is in no condition to play upon, and will have to get some good drying weather to get in shape for Monday's game, scheduled with the Toledo team. The Mudhens are also announced as the attraction for Tuesday and all that is now needed is good weather.

Bert Blue has been giving his particular attention to the young pitchers, and said this afternoon that there was some excellent material to be developed.

"The pitchers right now are too good for the batters. The youngsters are in fine shape and it is surprising to see them cut loose; yes, curve them if necessary. The men have not yet got a chance to recover their batting eyes and fall comparatively easy victims to the speed of these strong young pitchers. Some of them I really believe could go in right now and give a good account of themselves.

"There will be some of these fellows stick, sure," continued the head coach, "and I want to say that I have seen many a pitcher picked up in the American Association that was not as good as the men we now have on our list."

Manager Newnham has released the Wortman brothers of Otsego, an infielder and outfielder, and Outfielder Fisher of Cumberland, O.

Joe Riehl of New York state, a first baseman, is expected to report tonight, and Ingling, a pitcher who had been signed up by W. H. Watkins for Indianapolis, got in last night.

"Nel" Mason came to Newark from Columbus to umpire Saturday and Sunday's games but of course did not get to go to work. "Nel" has been wintering in Columbus this winter and has made no definite arrangements for the coming season. He has just about recovered from an injury to his spine which he sustained the latter part of last season while pitching in Illinois, but now looks to be in the best of health.

"Toledo will be here Monday sure, and I believe I'll say, like Clarke Griffith, we'll play rain, snow or high water," said Owner Harry Kiene, Saturday afternoon, so let's all pull for fine weather from now on.

BOYS' MEETING AT THE Y. M. C. A.

The Boys Meeting at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon promises to be one of the very best meetings that we have had this year. Boys, there will be something doing at the meeting tomorrow. We have a surprise in store for you. We are not going to announce the program but want you to come out and see for yourself, and we are sure that you will be very well pleased, when the meeting is over. Our friend Livingston has promised to be on hand and sing for us. Come out then, fellows, and hear your old friend Livy. He will be glad to see all the boys present. Rev. Mr. Bennett has something very important for every boy and is very anxious to have every boy of Newark in attendance at the meeting tomorrow. Fellows, if you are looking for a rare treat tomorrow will be the day, you cannot afford to miss the Boys meeting at the Y. M. C. A. promptly at 2 p. m.

The W. C. T. U. meeting at the rest room, will be postponed and the regular business meeting will be held in the Fourth Street Desciple church on Tuesday afternoon.

Home Ownership

Ownership of a home is fundamental to good domestic economy. It makes of every man a king. It establishes him in a domain wherein he is more a monarch than is the titled weakling to the throne or principality that came to him through the accident of birth. The knowledge of ownership instills a feeling of independence. It is an inspiration to thrift and economy. The home-owner who has practiced reasonable industry and economy can snap his fingers at panics and sickness. He stands in no fear of the rent collector or dispossessor. He and his good helpmete are joint rulers in a little kingdom of their own, which can be made a foretaste of paradise.—Editorial in Cincinnati Enquirer.

We have aided thousands in securing homes of their own. Let us explain our plan to you. If you have no ready money, start a savings account and save systematically. That is the first step.

The following account of a wedding taken from a Coshocton exchange will be noted with interest:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Randles near West Lafayette was the scene of a pretty home wedding Thursday at high noon when the Rev. W. C. Cain performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Irma Randles and Clyde Hockenbracht. The bride was most becomingly gowned in white chiffon mull. The young people entered the room to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Georgia Hamilton of West Lafayette, and the ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families of the two young people.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony the twenty guests were served a sumptuous wedding dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Hockenbracht left in the evening on Pennsylvania train No. 3 for a few days visit with the bridegroom's brother near Newark. They will return Saturday night to the home of Mrs. Mary Hockenbracht near West Lafayette where they will be honor guests at a reception and dinner on Sunday.

As the allotted meetings of the club grow fewer they become more interesting and this proved true of the assemblage this afternoon of the members of the Research club at the home of Miss Grace Dicken at her suburban home. The program was made up of the following:

Quotations, Nature—Miss Lawyer.
Paper, "Timely Topic of the Day"—Miss Owen.
Native Trees of Ohio—Mrs. Sininger.
Music.
The Winter's Tale, Acts III and IV. Readers, Miss Koos, Miss Trout, Miss Pugh, Miss Marshall, Miss Van Horn.
Critic—Miss Frye.

The Photozetean club was most delightfully entertained this afternoon at the home of Miss Emma Ankele in South Second street and the following program was gleaned from the calendar:

"Every flower enjoys the air it breathes."
Roll call, Tennyson—Miss McMahon.
Alfred Tennyson—Mrs. James.
Idylls of the King, Lancelot and Elaine—Miss Sims.
The Princess, Reading — Miss Browne.
Current History—Mrs. Swartz.
Critic's Report—Miss Suter.

The meeting of the Review club is being held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Nye in Pine street and program which had been placed on the calendar for the day proved most interesting.

Roll call, Quotations—Mrs. Ida Chase.
Sienna and It's Cathedral — Mrs Zentmeyer.
Reading, "The Spirit of Democracy" (Outlook)—Mrs. C. S. Morse.

Among the social events of the week was the surprise party given at the home of Mr and Mrs. S. C. Alsdorf by thirty-eight of their friends. A jolly time was had by all. Music cards and dancing were indulged in and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served.

On Tuesday evening Mr Lou Mossman at his home in Eastern avenue pleasantly entertained a number of his gentlemen friends with a stag pedro and euchre party in honor of his 29th birthday anniversary.

During the course of the evening's entertainment an old fashioned lunch was served by the host to the following guests: Messrs. Lafe Collins, Clyde Tawney, Ora Collins, Mac Mossman, Steve Stickle, Bruce Collins and Will Kincaid.

A pleasant surprise was perpetrated on Miss Esther L. Graef on her return from a week's visit with Miss Merle Stone of Chillicothe, O., when she was met at the car by members of the S. P. club, and ushered to her home where an elaborate dinner was awaiting her. After all had dined, a drawing contest was enjoyed and Miss Evelyn Canfield was declared the winner.

Miss Esther's guests were Misses Evelyn Canfield, Olive Yates, Lucille Coffman, Louise Kester, Dora Factor, Esther Tyrer, Ada Snelling.

The Thursday Bridge club was entertained on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs Walter Scott in Hudson avenue. A pleasant few hours were spent with the cards and a delicious luncheon was served.

The Harmonious club was most pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs Canterbury on last Tuesday afternoon. A sewing contest was a feature of the afternoon and the club prize was awarded to Mrs. Britton while Mrs. Charles Keller received the guest's souvenir. A dinner of two courses was served the members and following guests: Mrs Charles Keller, Mrs. Carl Graef, and Miss Ruth Jones.

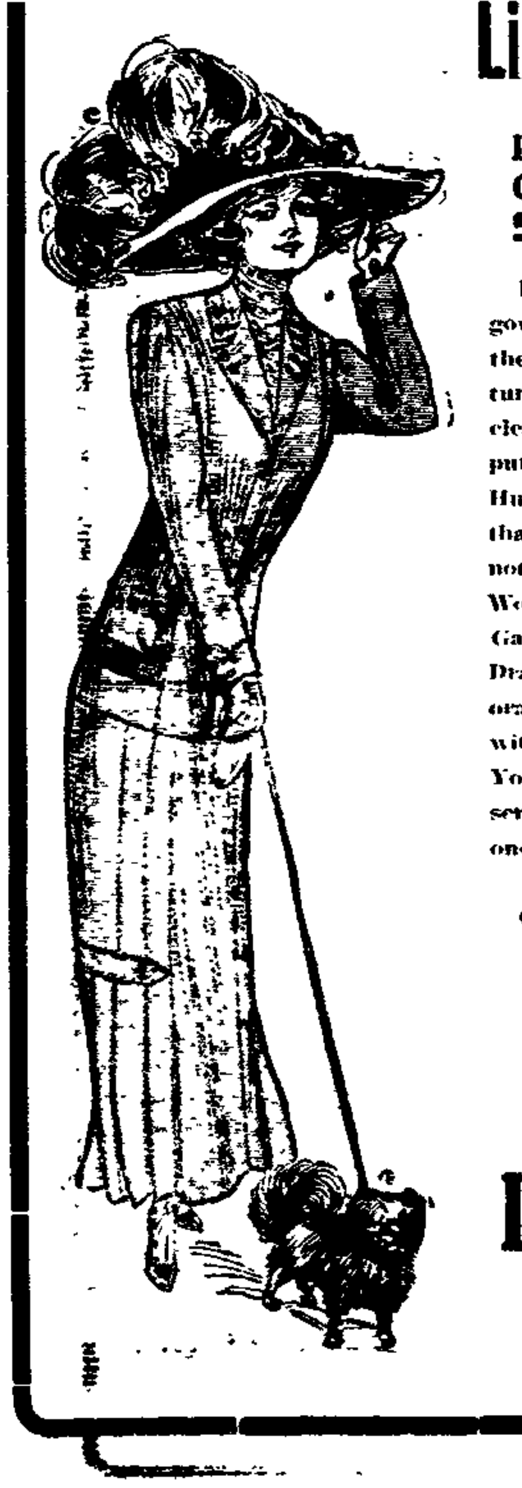
The Phi Sigma Chi fraternity of Granville entertained a number of friends on Friday evening with a delightful dance in the Municipal building. A most enjoyable dance program was furnished by Johnson's orchestra and light refreshments were served.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. John Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore of Granville and the following were present from Newark: Misses Helen Africa, Blanche Bline, Marguerite Platto, Helen Ingman, Hazel Lippincott, Edna Wagenheim, and Miss Elliott and Miss Florence Cully of Hebron.

Mrs Charles Gabkee is entertaining the members of the Unity Reading circle this afternoon in the parlors of the Plymouth Congregational church and following the program supper will be served at the church.

Mr and Mrs J. E. Benner delightfully entertained a number of their neighbors and friends with a dinner party.

Those who received the hospitality of the host and hostess were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKnight, Mr. and Mrs. Barton Tavener, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tavener, Mr and Mrs. William Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. David Tavener, and Mrs. Josephine Parr, Mr. Jonathan Tavener and Mr David Benner, and the Misses Maude Parr, Ethel Smith, Maude Tavener, Ream Benner, Olive, Frances and Esther Tavener, Messrs Allen Benner and Loaten Tavener. A sociable time was enjoyed by all present.



Licking Laundry

It Pays to Have Your Clothes Dry Cleaned

Don't worry about soiled gowns or "fineries"—just send them to the Licking. We'll return them to you so perfectly cleaned that to all intents and purposes they'll be really "new." Hundreds of Newark women say that Licking Dry Cleaning cannot be equalled. We clean Men's, Women's, Boys and Girls' Cloth Garments and Furs, Tapestries, Draperies and other interior decorations. Send your work along with your next laundry bundle. You will like our prices and our service. One of our many wagons awaits your call.

SUNNY MONDAY

The lasting qualities of Sunny Monday laundry soap mean economy to the woman who uses it. Its wonderful dirt-starting qualities are retained until the cake is worn to a wafer, and as it is a hard soap which does not wash away quickly, one bar of it will go as far as two bars of any yellow laundry soap. You spare your pocketbook as well as your clothes when you use Sunny Monday.

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY
CHICAGO

The calendar of the Investigators' club for 1911-12 will be the study of United States of today and Musicales. The following officers for the year have been elected:

Recording Secretary — Mrs. Walter Livingston.
Corresponding Secretary—Miss Nell Gray.
Treasurer—Mrs. Tenney Rees.
Auditor—Mrs. Weaver.
Librarian—Miss Anne Orr.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vernon entertained a few of their friends Monday evening at their home in Allen street, it being the fifth wedding anniversary of their marriage. Music, dancing and card playing were the amusements of the evening.

A dainty luncheon was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Doc Savey, Wm. Barrett, Rich Rice, Wm Frye, Wm. Hesson, Misses Carrie Misses Carrie Laughery, Florence Curts, Mary Fitzgerald, Helen McLaughin, Blanche Bline, Alice Mitchell, Julia Hoodenplye of Salem, Mo., Josephine Hirst and Eleanor Bland of Galion, Elizabeth Graham and Dorothy Sprague of Cincinnati. Messrs. Wm. Loughrey, Harvey Henderson, the host and hostess.

HER BUSY DAY.

Last Monday afternoon, Mrs. Gray, while up town, was much surprised to meet the colored woman who does her washing. "Why, Mrs. Johnson!" said Mrs. Gray, "I thought this was your busy day." "Did use ter be," came the reply, "but Ah uses Hewitt's Easy Task soap now an' gits all done 'fore dinner. It sure does the business in short order."

It does "do the business," and it only costs a nickel.

Recipes for April 2, 1911.

Coffee Charlotte—The charlotte is made with one-third of a cupful of very strong clear black coffee sweetened with one-third of a cupful of sugar and mixed when cold with one cupful and a half of heavy sweet cream. To this add one-third of a package of gelatine which has been soaked in one-third of a cupful of cold water and melted over hot water. When the mixture begins to thicken add one teaspoonful of vanilla and whip slowly but steadily until a mass of froth and very thick. Turn into a wetted mold, set aside and when turned out serve with plain or whipped cream.

Soft Ginger Cookies — Cream together one cupful each of brown sugar and lard or other shortening. Add one scant tablespoonful of ginger, one scant teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of baking soda, one cupful of molasses, one-half cupful of boiling water and sufficient sifted pastry flour to make a dough which will roll out easily. Roll in a sheet two-thirds of an inch thick, cut in rounds with a scalloped cutter and bake in a moderately quick oven.

Nasal Catarrh, an inflammation of the membrane lining the air-passages, is not cured by any mixtures taken into the stomach. Don't waste time on them. Take Ely's Cream Balm through the nostrils so that the fevered, swollen tissues are reached at once. Never mind how long you have suffered nor how often you have been disappointed, we know Ely's Cream Balm is the remedy you should use. All druggists, 50c. PLANNING ROUTE FOR ELECTRIC ROAD

(Utica Herald.)

Mr. Rich has spent much of the past week in Utica, soliciting subscriptions to bonds of the Columbus, Mt. Vernon & Mansfield Traction Co. as encouragement to the bringing of the road around by way of Utica. Two routes have been proposed for the extension from Johnstown to Mt. Vernon, one of them striking Homer and the other passing four miles south of Homer, coming to Utica, and from this village to Mt. Vernon.

The route by way of Utica would be slightly longer than by way of Homer, but it is probable that the greater amount of business it would receive from this point would more than offset the increase of distance. Not only would the Utica business be added, but if the road should connect Utica with Mt. Vernon it is a safe estimate that a link between Utica and Newark would speedily follow, making a valuable feeder for the Mt. Vernon and Mansfield line from Newark, Zanesville and other points.

RIG RECOVERED

The horse found hitched in front of the Enlow residence in Madison township was claimed last night by Baughman, the liveryman, after he had read an account of its finding in the Advocate. He hired it to a stranger Thursday and the latter has not been seen since.

JACKSONTOWN

Mr. Frank Fulk was delightfully surprised by a number of his friends taking possession of his home and reminding him of his fifty-sixth birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in a social manner and a delicious supper consisting of oysters, celery, slaw, pickles, potato salad, fruit, cake and coffee was served by Mrs Fulk to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. John Dusthimer, Mr and Mrs. Clyde Osburn, Mr. and Mrs. Verda Beard, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fulk, Mr and Mrs. Frank Wince, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Coffman, Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Crow, Mr. and Mrs. Jafes Courson, Mr and Mrs. Earl Norman, Mr. and Mrs. George Stotler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stotler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Franks, Mr. and Mrs. John Stotler, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. George Tavener, Mr. and Mrs. Asbury Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fulk, Mrs. Ella Harter of Newark, Mr. Allen Crow of Delaware, Mr. Bader Fulk, Miss Rilla Fulk of Melgen, Mr. Robert Catlin, Mr. James Dusthimer, Misses Dorothy Orr, Mildred Orr, Helen Fulk, Reba Fulk, Alice Keller, Miriam Osburn, Elizabeth Osburn, Lula Swartz, and Mr. and Mrs. Eart Keller of Thornville.

All departed for their homes at a late hour wishing Mr. Fulk many more happy birthday anniversaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Irwin of Newark are spending several days at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asbury Irwin at this place.

Mrs. Benjamin Bromfield was called to Columbus by the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. Eva Dailey.

Mrs. Catherine Courson has been suffering with rheumatism for several days.

Mrs. Col. Meredith has returned home after spending several days in Columbus with her sister, Mrs. Frank Dailey, who is quite ill.

Miss Eliza Puffer has returned to her home at this place after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Wash. Woolard near Granville.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Swartz is quite ill at the home south of the village.

Blobbs—Guzzler says he doesn't believe in bearing other people's burdens. Slobbs—No wonder; Guzzler is generally carrying a pretty good load of his own.

Joseph Kuster, called by his friends "Uncle Joe," is quite ill and has been confined to his room for the last several days.

"The Happiest Night of His Life," in which Victor Moore has been starring closes April 1. Moore will take a trip through the vaudeville houses.

OPTICAL DEPT. AT HAYNES BROS.

The writer was much surprised and gratified at the great progress made by one of the leading and most progressive retail firms during a recent visit to the optical department of one of Newark's best known jewelry establishments the Haynes Brothers.

Mr. W. I. Haynes is kept busy in his optical parlor restoring good eyesight to defective eyes for which his eighteen years of active experience have eminently fitted him. This firm is one of the half dozen in the state of Ohio who grind almost every lense they fit to the eyes.

Haynes Bros. have one of the new automatic lense grinding machines when you break a lense just save the pieces as this firm can reproduce almost any lense while you wait. Office hours of the optical department are 9 to 11 a. m. and 12 to 5 p. m., except Fridays, as this department is obliged to reserve one day each week for other business duties. d30-1-3

If there is anything the people do not want for which Taft has not fought for they would like to know what it is. The President seems to have a faculty for creating situations that afterwards rise up to stab him. It has been brought out during the investigation of an Illinois legislative committee, prying into bribery charges in connection with the election of Senator Lorimer, that President Taft and Senator Aldrich both desired to have Lorimer elected, and that their interference during the deadlock in the Illinois legislature over the election of a senator, was one of the considerations which moved Congressman Lorimer to become a senatorial candidate.

Democratic control of the national house of representatives will mean revision downward in government extravagance as well as the revision downward of the tariff, according to present indications. The Republicans have created 100,000 new federal positions in 8 years at a cost of $70,000,000. Senator Aldrich declared the federal government wasted $[illegible] hope to reduce the chmrd yawawaw every year. The Democrats hardly hope to reduce the cost of administration to that extent, but they do expect to retrench wherever it can be done without impairing the efficiency of the government. Nine committees will be set to work with the object of reducing governmental expenditures to the minimum.

UNCLE WALT

The Poet Philosopher

THE SNAKE LIAR

Full soon, when Gentle Annie wakes, and verdure clothes the hill and glen, the man whose lies are all of snakes will come into his own again. From fragrant meadowlands he'll come, to tell of rattlesnakes that wore some forty rattles and a drum; he killed that snake and thirty more. The hoopsnake, spurred by nature's laws, will come forth from its dark abode, and take its tail between its jaws, and roll along the country road. The joint snake from its cavern flits, if you believe the liar's fake; he breaks it up in little bits, and each becomes another snake. When verdure clothes the hill and glen, and summer breezes fan the sky, we'll have the same old yarns again, the same old snakes that never die. Invention in all other lines still marches with this bustling age; the serpent liar never shines, nor brings new lies to earn his wage. Is there no gifted, earnest soul, the chains of age-long sloth to break, to knock old customs with a pole, and tell new lies about a snake?

Copyright, 1911, by George Matthew Adams. Walt Mason

Prosecuting Attorney Henry T. Hunt, a Democrat who has reminded George B. Cox and his gangsters that the criminal laws of the state of Ohio apply to them as well as to all other Ohio citizens, will be able to continue his fight with a new weapon which was placed in his hands by the Democratic general assembly through the enactment of the two Bruce bills. Common Pleas judges under existing laws appoint detectives to assist prosecuting attorneys in ferreting out law violators. The majority of the Cincinnati Common Pleas judges bear the Cox tag, and have been assigning detectives to Hunt. The latter says these sleuths, for some unaccountable reason, suddenly lose their zeal and keenness when placed on a trail of graft that leads to the Cox machine. The two Bruce bills enable the prosecuting attorney of each county to employ his own detective, and also provide a fund to meet this expense.

It has been customary for many Republican officials heretofore to retain the money when they were in doubt as to whether certain fees paid into their office belonged to them, or should be paid into the state treasury, but Frank E. McKean, the new Supreme court clerk, is not that kind of a man. When he is in doubt as to whether he should retain certain receipts in his office, he gets on the safe side by promptly paying the money into the state treasury. It has been customary for Republican clerks of the Ohio Supreme court to retain all fees paid by lawyers for copies of certificates licensing them to practice law, but McKean has paid these fees into the state treasury.

President Taft is trimming his sails in preparation for a spin over the presidential campaign course. The traveling expenses of government officers and employes last year amounted to $12,000,000; jobs were multiplied during his first two years, but the executive is now cutting off thousands of government employes in his effort to make an economy showing that will get votes for him.

There is to be a corner on "dough." John W. Gates has organized a $50,000,000 bread trust, and will have branches in all cities, and will practically control the price of bread. The people as usual will not be on the inside of this deal.

COURT NEWS

Common Pleas Court.

In the case of the State of Ohio vs. Otto Gooding, charged with keeping a place at Utica where intoxicating liquors were sold, the court heard the evidence and found the defendant guilty. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, this being a second offense, and to be imprisoned in the county jail until fine and costs are paid. Suspension of sentence was refused, and the defendant was taken to jail by the sheriff.

State vs. Hendricks Carpenter, a similar charge; defendant found guilty. First offense. Sentenced to pay fine of $200 and costs. Sentence suspended for 5 days pending proceedings in error in the circuit court.

State vs. Joseph Dureaux, same charge; trial continued until Monday next.

In the case of the State of Ohio vs. Albert Lewis, heretofore tried and found guilty of non-support of his minor child, the court sustained a motion for a new trial.

TAX LIMIT BILL OPPOSED BY THE CITIES

Columbus, O., April 1. Whether the taxpayers are to get a law limiting the maximum rate to one per cent as pledged in the platforms of both political parties, rests entirely with the ability of the friends of that reform to overcome the insistent demands of the larger cities for a flexibility of terms, which will permit a maximum of 15 mills and perhaps more.

Governor Harmon has repeatedly declared that he will accept nothing but a one per cent bill. That is to say, the maximum is to be fixed at that figure, and if an excess is required the proposition must be submitted to the political subdivision seeking the increase.

Chairman William T. Smith of the taxation committee of the house of representatives, who is in charge of the handling of the bill, announces that no more than five mills extra will be permitted with the approval of the committee.

In the senate the members from the larger cities of the state are arrayed against the bill as it came from the house, and the governor has been informed that there is no prospect of its passage unless some concessions are made to them. The measure has been held up in that branch for many weeks and has been subjected to a constant fire from the officials from these cities, no voice as yet having been lifted in its favor save that of Chairman Smith, who was treated with such marked disrespect that he has since refused to attend the sessions of the committee considering it.

The opponents will, however, agree to his amendment limiting the referendum to 15 mills, but after that there is no agreement between them. The house created a budget commission within the bill. This body is to be made up of the treasurer, auditor and prosecuting attorney of each county and it is to pass upon the estimates made by the various subdivisions.

The stated reason for this is that taxing districts overlap and it is necessary to harmonize the demands in order that property in the same sites may not be subjected to maximum taxes from several different departments. To this the city members of the senate object, and will insist upon it being stricken from the bill. The chief opposition to it comes from the schools and libraries, the representatives of which argue that their levies will be cut down by the politicians in order to secure money for offices and contracts.

A third amendment will remove, if adopted, the total limit of taxes that may be raised by the bill, which is now fixed at the total amount of money raised for all purposes in 1909. At present the demand is the basis of 1910, the argument being made that all cities are growing and it is necessary to provide more money for their pressing needs.

HAIR DROPS OUT

Many People Have a Simple Way of Stopping It.

It was Dr. Sangerbund of Paris who first discovered that dandruff and falling hair were caused by microbes.

And now that Parisian Sage, the remedy that kills the dandruff germ is sold in every town in America, the clean people of this country have awakened to the fact that dandruff is unnecessary; that falling hair and itching scalp can be quickly stopped and that people who use Parisian Sage will never grow bald.

To every reader of the Advocate who wishes to eradicate disgusting dandruff, stop falling hair, and have an immaculately clean scalp, free from itchiness, we make this offer:

Evans' Drug Store will return your money, without red tape, if Parisian Sage does not banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks.

Parisian Sage is sold by Evans' Drug Store and druggists everywhere for 50 cents a large bottle. It is an ideal, daintily perfumed hair dressing, free from grease and stickiness, and will cause hair to grow lustrous and luxuriant. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid by Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

BAPTISTS WILL HOLD CONFERENCE AT GRANVILLE

Ministers From All Sections of the State Are Expected To Be Present.

Granville, April 1.—Everything is now in readiness for the annual conference of the Baptist Ministers of Ohio, which is to be held in Granville commencing Monday afternoon and continuing over Wednesday. The conference is to be held in Cleveland Hall and regular sessions will be held each morning and afternoon, ending Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meetings will be held in the Baptist church on Monday and Tuesday evenings at 7 o'clock, when able addresses will be made by eminent speakers from a distance.

For a number of years these ministerial conferences have been held in Granville, and there is always a large attendance at every meeting, ministers of the Baptist church coming here from all parts of the state.

At the meeting to be held here the coming week the general subject of the conference will be "The Church and Social Service," and addresses on the subject will be made by men of national reputation.

Not only will the proceedings be of great interest to all Baptists but it will be such that ministers of all denominations will be greatly interested, so there is likely to be an unusually large attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Moore of Fostoria, who have been visiting relatives and friends here during the past week, returned home Friday, after having had a most enjoyable visit.

Miss Dora Zimmerman, Denison, '02, has recently written a very interesting account of her work at Pingpo, East China. Several months ago she sent to Denison Y. W. C. A. a beautiful red satin banner with John 15:16 embroidered in Chinese characters of yellow silk. The work was done by the Chinese girls of her school. Miss Zimmerman's work in the mission school consists in teaching English and in teaching the girls and women to be true Christians. She sends a very hopeful report to her Alma Mater, although the definite results are few.

Miss Ida Wickenden, Denison '07, is another girl who is working in the far East. Her station is at Hangchow, China. Her work is somewhat the same as that of Miss Zimmerman. She reports advance in school work. She sailed from America with Miss Zimmerman in the fall of 1908. She has recently completed the language work, which is the real foundation for all real service in China.

Mr. Edmond Rees has sold his farm near Galena, O., and has moved his family to Granville, where he expects to locate.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Wilson of Urbana, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Granville and vicinity for some time, have returned home.

Mr. S. E. Morrow was in Columbus Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hatfield of Hebron have moved into Mr. Charles White's property on East Broadway.

Miss Elsie Falley, an accomplished young woman of Hillsboro, O., who has been visiting here for some days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. J. E. Lloyd of Garrett, Ind., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lloyd for some days, returned to her home in Garrett, Ind., Saturday.

Miss Clara Shively, teacher in the Fifth grade of the Granville Public schools, is spending her vacation at her home in McArthur, O.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Miley of Bucyrus, after a short visit with friends in Granville and vicinity, returned home Saturday.

Mr. W. H. Hoover, who was injured in a fall from his buggy several days ago, is reported as getting along nicely, although he is still unable to return to his home. At present he is at the home of a friend near Higawater.

Edmond Rees enjoyed a short visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlin Patten.

WHAT IS SOAP?

This is a matter which few except chemists understand. Let us give you a little information. Soap is a composition of fat and alkali, which, if properly proportioned and treated, results in a new chemical product which bears this name.

The best cleanser in the world is soap—pure soap in which the ingredients are scientifically combined. The cheap "soaps" with which the market is flooded, contain so much alkali that fabrics washed in them are soon ruined.

Try Hewitt's Easy Task soap, which is the true blend of tallow, cocoanut oil and borax, and see the rapid improvement in the wash and the hands who do it.

Elisha heals Naaman the Syrian. 2 Kings 5.

Golden Text.—Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else. Isaiah xlv: 22.

(1.) Verse 1—Who was Naaman and what were his characteristics?

(2.) Who was the King of Syria and Israel at this time?

(3.) Is sickness as likely to come to a great, as to an ordinary man?

(4.) Verses 2-4—Who was the little maid referred to, and what apparent calamity had befallen her?

(5.) Do real calamities ever happen to real Christians?

(6.) Are children as good, or better, judges of spiritual truth as their seniors?

(7.) Is spiritual truth told second-hand as likely to be efficacious as when told with first-hand knowledge?

(8.) Verses 5-7—Was the King of Syria actuated by selfish or benevolent motives, or both, in sending Naaman to be cured of his leprosy?

(9.) Is the motive of doing in order to getting necessarily an impure one?

(10.) What reason had the King of Israel for being afraid when he received the letter from the King of Syria?

(11.) When is it right, and when wrong, to be suspicious of the actions of others?

(12.) Is it true that the average man is suspicious, or trustful, of his fellows, and why is it so?

(13.) What is great generosity in giving to others generally a sign of?

(14.) Verses 8-12—Do good men exercise their powers for helpfulness to others with reluctance, or willingly, and why is it so?

(15.) Did Elisha, judged by Christian standards, act with sufficient courtesy in not going out to speak personally to such a noted man as Naaman?

(16.) Is it right or wrong, and why, to show more courtesy or deference to noted people than we do to others?

(17.) To what extent was Naaman either right or wrong in being angry at the scant courtesy shown him by Elisha?

(18.) Verses 13-14—Why, under the circumstances was it natural that these servants should be better judges of Elisha's instructions than their master?

(19.) Why are sinners generally more willing to do some hard thing, than they are to comply with God's easy plan for their salvation? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(20.) Verses 15-17—Did Naaman do right in offering a present and did Elisha do right in refusing it, and why?

(21.) Verses 18-19—What reason is there to think that Naaman was truly converted?

(22.) Did Elisha approve of Naaman waiting upon his master, the king, while the latter was engaged in idolatrous worship?

(23.) Verses 20-27—What is your view of the sin of Gehazi and its swift punishment?

Lesson for Sunday, April 9th, 1911. Elisha's Heavenly Defenders. 2 Kings vi:8-23.

LODGE NEWS

Knights of Pythias.

At the meeting of Roland Lodge, Tuesday evening, March 28, the Page rank was conferred on five candidates. Next Tuesday evening the Esquire rank will be conferred. The brothers on the sick list were reported to be improving. If any of the brothers know of a sick brother in the city belong to this or any other K. of P. lodge, they are kindly asked to report it to the chancellor commander of Roland lodge and immediate action will be taken. Newark lodge, No. 13, moved into our hall this week and will hold their first meeting there next Thursday. They are most heartily welcome. Rehearsals are now in full swing for the big production of the beautiful drama, "Damon and Pythias," to be produced the last of April. Begin to make your preparations to be there. If you miss it you certainly will regret it.

The Knights of Pythias, Pythian Sisters and invited friends, to the number of 150 or more, enjoyed an interesting program and good social time at their castle hall on Wednesday evening of last week. The affair was planned and given by the Knights, entertaining the ladies. Music was furnished by the K. of P. orchestra. The many changes and improvements in the hall elicited much favorable comment from those present.—Centerburg Gazette.

I. O. O. F.

Olive Branch Lodge met in regular session March 28. After the regular business was transacted the initiatory degree was conferred on one candidate. Brothers, the third degree will be conferred next Tuesday evening. Let every brother be in attendance. Visiting brothers always find a welcome seat at our meetings.

Modern Woodmen.

Cedar Camp, No. 4727, M. W. of A., met in regular session Monday night. Eight applications for membership were received and elected. Charles R. Love, Richard W. Stargell, Harry Hamilton, Clinton Peffers, Zura Toothman, Charles F. Martin and George Stewart were adopted as members. An invitation was received from Neighbor Jos. A. Bennett for the camp to attend Mother's Day services at his church Sunday, May 14, and all neighbors are requested to turn out with the camp on that night. Monday night, May 1, the camps in Licking county will have a big county class adoption. Monday night, April 10, Utica Camp will visit Cedar Camp and owing to the train service the camp will be opened promptly at 7 o'clock, so that the Utica neighbors can see the work and catch the 9:20 train back to Utica. Next Monday night there will be several candidates to receive the work.

Odd Fellows.

Newark Lodge, No. 623, I. O. O. F., met in regular session Monday evening, March 27, with a large attendance of the members. One application for membership was received. At the meeting to be held Monday night, April 3, the annual home-coming of the lodge will be celebrated. All Odd Fellows in Newark, both local and transient, are urged to be present on this occasion. There will be no degree work, as has been announced, but after a short business session the evening will be [illegible] Suitable speakers have been secured for the occasion. Supper will also be served. All Odd Fellows are cordially invited to attend.

K. O. T. M.

Octagon Tent, No. 132, K. O. T. M., will meet in regular review on Wednesday night, April 5, when there will be work in the first and second degrees. State Lecturer M. V. Hansen will be present and that means a good time, for he is a most interesting speaker. Deputy A. W. Shinn is expected to be present in a short time for special work, and may possibly be here Wednesday night. All Sir Knights are urged to be present. The record keeper would be glad to see all knights at the office tonight to talk with you in regard to increasing the membership of the tent.

Royal Arcanum.

Preparations are being made for an old time banquet in the near future. The first meeting in the new hall will be April 7. A change of meeting place and hall became necessary on account of Newark Lodge, No. 13, vacating their rooms in the Hibbert and Schaus building. The members present at the last meeting were given a treat at Brother Criticos' ice cream parlors.

Daughters of Veterans.

Philomena M. We[illegible] Tent, No. 25, Daughters of Veterans, met in regular session Tuesday evening, March 28, with a good attendance. Following the transaction of business, there being no degree work, most of the evening was consumed by short talks for the good of the union. Resolutions were adopted which are well calculated to promote the happiness and contentment of the organization. We most earnestly desire a regular attendance from all members at each meeting. Much good is bound to come if we are prompt in our attendance. And again all eligible ladies of good moral standing in the community are earnestly invited to become members of this organization. With stout hearts and willing hands, truly fitting to the Daughters of Veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, what may we not accomplish? We meet the second and fourth Tuesday of each month in the G. A. R. hall in the Auditorium building. Visiting sisters most welcome.

L. O. T. M.

The district convention of the L. O. T. M. will be held at Cambridge, O., April 6. Mrs. E. F. Ryan, lady commander, will go as delegate from Newark Hive, No. 455, and Mrs. E. E. Moore will go as delegate from White Carnation Hive, No. 68. All Lady Maccabees are invited.

Knights of Columbus.

An interesting meeting was that which was held Monday evening by the Knights of Columbus at their hall. Bro. John G. Price, grand knight, of Columbus Council, was present and gave a very interesting talk on "Permanent Homes." This is a subject on which Mr. Price is well versed and his talk was one which drew forth loud applause.

The next meeting, which will be held Monday, April 10, will be called "Irish night," and the lecturer has promised something out of the ordinary for this occasion.

ATTENTION, G. A. R.

The Grand Army will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow in its hall at 2 o'clock. A good attendance is desired. The regular open meeting will be held on the third Sunday of this as well as of every month, to which all are invited. R. C. Bigbee, Commander of Post.

SERVICES AT THE ADVENTIST CHURCH

Next Sunday evening Walter K. Moffett will again speak at the S. D. A. church on North Sixth street. The subject at that time will be the "Waymarks to the Holy City," and will merge into a study of the prophecies of the Book of Daniel and kindred scriptures in the weeks to follow. Mr. Moffett is a thorough student of the Bible and adheres closely to what is written. He does not at all teach for doctrine the commandments of men. It will well repay one to visit the Adventist church next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock standard time.

CATARRH OF THE KIDNEYS NOT ALWAYS RECOGNIZED.

A Cold Settled in Kidneys, Causing Serious Trouble. Pe-ru-na Restores Health.

CATARRH of the kidneys is a very much neglected disease.

It is not until the disease has a firm hold upon the kidneys that the patient begins to realize that there is some derangement of these organs.

The slight backaches, the feelings of lassitude, and other warning symptoms of kidney diseases are overlooked.

They are not serious enough to detain the patient from his regular work.

Even when he discovers that the kidneys are affected, he does not recognize the difficulty as being caused by catarrh.

Catarrh is sometimes so very gradual in its approach and its earlier symptoms cause such slight discomfort that it is not noticed.

However, when it is once firmly seated in the kidneys it becomes a difficult disease to exterminate.

Indeed, catarrh of the kidneys is more serious than catarrh affecting some of the other organs of the body.

In the kidneys it is liable to terminate in Bright's Disease or diabetes, both of which are recognized as very serious ailments, if not fatal.

The thing to be done, when a cold or catarrh of the kidneys is discovered, is to take some internal, systematic catarrh remedy, one that relieves the catarrhal disturbances and thus removes the cause of the difficulty.

Such a remedy has been found in Peruna. It relieves catarrh, no matter where it may be located in the body—whether in the more exposed membranes of the nose and throat, or whether in the remotest part of the kidneys.

Peruna For Kidney Disease

That Peruna is at once the safest and most reliable remedy for catarrh of the kidneys is proven by the many testimonials written by those who have experienced its benefits.

The testimonials given here are only specimens of the many testimonials on our records, pertaining to the relief afforded by Peruna in severe cases of kidney trouble.

Catarrh of Kidneys.

Judge C. J. Park, R. F. D. 4, Greensboro, Greene Co., Ga., writes: "For a long time I was troubled with catarrh of the kidneys, and after taking Peruna I feel like a new man. I think it the greatest catarrh medicine of the age, and believe it will cure any case of catarrh on record."

MR. JOHN N. WATKINS.

Mr. John N. Watkins, 3431 A Crittenden St., St. Louis, Mo., writes:

"Among all the greatly advertised medicines for kidney and bladder trouble there is nothing which equals Peruna. I suffered for several years with this trouble, spent hundreds of dollars on doctors and medicine and all to no purpose, until I took Peruna.

"One bottle did me more good than all the others put together, as they only poisoned my system. Peruna cured me. I used it for four months before a complete cure was accomplished, but am truly grateful to you. The least I can do in return is to acknowledge the merits of Peruna."

Kidney Trouble, Weak Back.

Mr. M. Broderick, 706 East 46th St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have been suffering from a weak back and kidney trouble for some time and have been able to find relief only through the use of Peruna. During the winter season I usually keep a bottle of your medicine in the house, and by taking a dose at night I am feeling fine the next morning.

"Some of my friends assure me that Peruna is equally as good for their various ailments, but I do know that for kidney trouble and suffering from a weak back it has no equal."

Daddy's Bedtime Story — The Doves In School

"In Flew One of the Doves"

"IN the big cities, where there are so few flowers and trees and the only birds to be seen in most places are the noisy, quarreling sparrows, the children do not have much chance to learn about nature and its ways. But that does not prevent many of them from being fond of trees and flowers and birds, for their teachers explain these things to them and sometimes take the youngsters to the country for outings."

That is the way daddy began his bedtime story for Jack and Evelyn one evening. He went on to say

"Once I saw a very pretty thing in the city. It was in one of the big schoolhouses where there are sometimes more than a thousand children at one time. In one of the upper floors in the corner of the building the windows of a schoolroom looked out on the sky, and on the window ledge the teacher had placed a wooden box with a door toward the window. The window ledge was broad, and there was a space between the box and the edge of the stone. Here the teacher scattered corn and oats, and the children brought breadcrumbs and bits of cake and other things from their luncheons. These were scattered on the window ledge for a pair of doves which flew up to get food there.

"At first, of course, the doves were very shy, and whenever any of the children or the teacher came too close to the window the birds flew away. But after a time they became tamer and bolder and would permit the children and their teacher to come quite close to the window. And then they showed in another way how tame they were."

"How was that, daddy?" asked Evelyn.

"Why," answered daddy, "the birds became so bold that they walked inside, into the wooden box with the door. They seemed to find it a comfortable, cozy place, too, for they stayed there quite a long time. They came again and again, until one day they even ventured into the schoolroom and flew to the desk of a little girl nearby. She was delighted, you may be sure, to have the dove visit her.

"The next day the teacher brought a basket of straw and placed it on a shelf near the window. The sun was shining brightly, the day was warm, and in flew one of the doves. It looked about for a time and then spied the basket of straw. 'Here's a good thing for us,' it seemed to say, and it flew away to call its mate. In a short time the two returned together, flew to the basket of straw and picked out pieces. Then they set to work building their nest in the box. The children were delighted to think that the doves liked them well enough to make their home among them."

OBEY THE RULES.

Yes, life is a game. * * * The rules of it have been made independently of me, but they are absolute, and we must obey them. These rules are the laws of nature, the laws of health, the laws of intellect—above all, the laws of God. * * * Disobey them and you make life a misery and death a ruin.—Frederic W. Farrar.

LAKE BREEZE PAYS UTICA COMPLIMENT

In the course of an article on the subject of the good roads movement, the Buckeye Lake Breeze of Hebron pays the following compliment to Utica:

"If the towns of Licking county are to keep a place as live ones on the map they must become independent of the rural communities. That this can be accomplished, we point to our sister village, Utica. Utica could today stand the loss of her farmer trade and thrive. She has bid for home industry and fostered it; she has invited home builders and has made home building possible by keeping real estate values at normal. She can laugh at the efforts made to divert her trade to the county seat. With factories to create wealth and population to promote commercial affairs, Utica has no cause to fear loss through the good roads movement."

A Notre Dame Lady's Appeal.

To all knowing sufferers of rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, sciatica, lumbagos, backache, pains in the kidneys or neuralgia pains, to write to her for a home treatment which has repeatedly cured all of these tortures. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery banishes uric acid from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. If the above interests you, for proof address Mrs. M. Summers, Box R, Notre Dame, Ind.

NEW CORN CURE A REAL MARVEL

Guaranteed and Absolutely Painless.

A corn cure that is painless and that will really do the work has finally been discovered. Heretofore, the poor sufferer from corns has been pestered with "drawing" salves and plasters that swell the corns, and has had finally to gouge out his corn and inflict upon himself still greater pain. With Hall's Painless Corn Cure all pain ceases on the first application, and then finally the corn comes right off easily and painlessly. You don't have to dig it out and run the risk of drawing blood, making your corns still more sore or getting blood poison.

Hall's Painless Corn Cure is easier to use than any other; it takes a few seconds to apply it. It is guaranteed absolutely in every case. You must be satisfied, or back goes your money.

Lasts longer than several packages of any other corn treatment, and you are sure to get rid of corns and bunions. Sold at 25 cents a bottle at

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT FOR PAST MONTH

Librarian's report of Newark Public Library for month February 21st to March 20, 1911:

Cash on band Feb 21	$ 64
Received from fines and reserve fees	7 73
Total receipts for month	$ 8.37
Expenditures for month	6.31
Cash on hand March 20	$2.06
Circulation of adult fiction for the month	1341
Circulation of juvenile fiction for month	1186
Circulation of non-fiction for month	290
Total circulation of books for month	2820
Highest daily circulation	271
Lowest daily circulation	17
Average daily circulation	123
Number of new borrowers for the month	91
Total number of borrowers todate	3860
Number of books mended by Library staff	207
Number of books rebacked by professional binders	12
Number of books accessioned	21

During the month the Library was closed on Washington's birthday; also for the half days on account of the Library Loan Exhibit. The executive committee at this time secured the services of Miss Mehl, who helped the assistants while the librarian was busy at the loan.

Donations for the month were as follows: Mrs. Hannah Allen, $1; Mrs. Arthur Sweet, $5; Mr. A. L. Norton, 2,000 book marks containing the rules of the Public Library; W. S. Weiant, Jr., 9 vols.; Lawrence Keckler, 1 vol.; Geo. Pfeffer, 7 vols.; Mr. Harry Scott, 1 vol.; Mrs. J. R. Dye, 1 vol.; John Fuller, 3 vols.; Nellie Kissinger, 7 vols.; Mr. Henry Bostwick, 2 vols.; Miss Laura Jones, 1 vol.; Frank Spencer, 4 vols.; Mrs. O. P. Dorn, 14 vols.; K. McFarland, 3 vols.; Miss Robbins, 6 vols.

Magazines were given by the following: Miss Ashbrook, Mrs. Eugene Ball, Mr. Bigbee, Mrs. C. W. Montgomery, Miss Blanche Murphy, Mrs. James Thomas, Mr. T. H. Sites, Mrs. C. C. Metz.

There has been a steady increase in the patronage of the Reference and Rading rooms. Here may be found 28 different magazines and 5 newspapers for the use of the public.

It has been the constant policy of the Library to encourage all lines of educational work.

To this end the Library gladly cooperates, as far as it may, with the schools and clubs, particularly those interested in the welfare of children and young people. Non-resident students of our schools are granted borrower's privileges upon the signature of a guarantor. All shelves are open to the public.

Last month a plea was made for some histories of Licking county. This met with a ready response, but we are still in need of an Atlas of Licking county.

The loan of such a book would be greatly appreciated by the Library and the inquiring public.

ELIZA J. RANKIN,
Librarian.

COMMUNICATED

It is again our privilege to call the attention of our readers to the Salvation Army's annual self-denial effort that has for its object the raising of funds to extend the work locally and upon the mission field, now covering 56 countries and colonies. It is surprising that in so short a time this army of God has accomplished so much, but we have come to the conclusion that this is entirely due to the self-denying lives and efforts of its beautiful officers and adherents. One has only to see them at work to admire them and they certainly deserve all we may do for them. When we remember that they, like their Master, care nothing about creed or class, all are alike to them, the needy find these willing workers where the poorest and the worst are to be found. Especially do we commend them for their work among the fallen women of the great cities of this continent. Here in our own city we have evidence of their devotion. Drunkards have been reclaimed, the outcast taken hold of, the widow and the orphan cared for and in a thousand other ways lives of men and women made brighter by the presence of the men in the red jackets and the girls in blue bonnets. We know that every branch of Salvation Army work is carefully handled and its funds properly accounted for; also that at the head are men and women fitted to deal with the problems that continually confront them. The results certainly justify the means they use. The officer in charge of the local branch, Capt. Thos. J. Kittle, will be grateful for all assistance that can be given to this particular work.

DR. JOS. CLARK

Secretary of the Ohio Sunday School Association, Will Give Pictorial Lecture Here May 18.

Dr. Clark will open the Licking county Sunday school convention on Thursday evening, Mary 18, with his famous illustrated lecture. It is a pictorial unfolding of the organized Sunday school work by the use of 130 slides. The lecture is declared by those who have heard it to reveal the value and need of organized Sunday school work in a very convincing manner.

DR. JOSEPH CLARK.

Dr. Clark is a born Sunday school man. His father and mother were noted Sunday school workers forty years ago. The father Samuel W. Clark, was more than 30 years the general secretary of the New Jersey State Sunday School Association and is known as the father of the Sunday school blackboard. Dr. Clark's mother is known as the mother of the Primary Union. She was the first Chautauqua lecturer on elementary work and for 25 years was president and teacher of the New York State Primary Union.

From 1880 to 1886 Dr. Clark was secretary of the Colorado State Sunday school Association, and was instrumental in organizing the state in interdenominational Sunday school work. After devoting 10 years to the ministry, 12 years ago Dr. Clark succeeded Mr. Marion Lawrence as secretary for the work in Ohio.

Dr. Clark is also an author of note, and is widely known by the nom de plume of "Timothy Standby."

LET CLEAN-UP BE COMPLETE

When school opens next Monday the teachers will talk for a few moments upon the importance of Newark's Clean-Up day. Hundreds of yards about town are today in a more sanitary condition than ever before, but numerous other places—yards, alleys and cellars—need attention. The boys and girls will be asked to help finish the work which has been so well begun. They are asked to do their part in the general clean-up of the city and to report to the health officer, Dr. William H. Knauss, any premises that need attention. The city authorities propose to compel those who will not voluntarily do so, to clean their premises this spring and at once.

AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR.

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by F. D. Hall, druggist.

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION and with a record of 40 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

This play, which is to be the attraction at the Auditorium theatre on April 6, with Walker Whiteside and the original New York and Chicago cast has proven to be the dramatic sensation of the past ten seasons. Zangwill contends that America is the crucible in which radical [illegible] shall be burned away and the people fused into a sort of superman, the true American type which has not yet been produced. GETTING MOVING PICTURES OF A BULL FIGHT IS EXCITING.

Fighting bulls are not very accommodating even to moving picture photographers. There is a series of animated scenes in Lyman H. Howe's new Travel Festival, which will appear here soon, that demonstrates how unwillingly bulls enter into the spirit of picture making.

One of the Howe representatives spent several months in the mountains of Spain making animated scenes of the training of a fighting bull. The Production of "Madame X" Pleases Cincinnatians.

One of the finest reviews which has been accorded a play in Cincinnati recently, was that given the production of "Madame X" at the [illegible] theatre in that city. The Enquirer in speaking of the play says:

"Call it melodrama [illegible] whatever name you please, 'Madame X,' the sensational Parisian play by Alexandre Bisson, which was presented for the first time here at the [illegible] last night, has that one potent quality of commanding the absolute interest of an audience and holding it in a vise-like grip until the final moment of the play. Still more, it also has the quality of reaching the sympathies of the greater number in an audience and playing upon them in no uncertain manner.

"If the purpose of the stage be to keep a crowd of people spellbound, then 'Madame X' fulfills that purpose as few plays in years have been able to do. If the still further purpose be to demonstrate the [illegible] of the playwright and to present a finely regulated series of incidents leading to a climax that is overpowering and withal intensely human, then, too, has 'Madame X' accomplished that purpose in an unusually effective manner. If, however, the purpose of the drama is to provide comfortable amusement for the tired business man, then 'Madame X' will prove a bit too strenuous and, perhaps, a bit [illegible]. And if the theatre is to be solely the place for pure works of art, [illegible] will the serious student find little to praise of to [illegible] done in 'Madame X.' But if one can go to the theatre with an open mind and accept frankly that which is offered, such a one will find in 'Madame X' a play of the most [illegible] kind, a melodrama of [illegible] situations, with a grip [illegible] that cannot be denied, and with [illegible] the nonchalance of [illegible] the worldly-wise will not be [illegible] gainsay.

"The whole [illegible] is built for the [illegible] scene [illegible] the last act. All that [illegible] before is merely preparation for this scene. And no matter how [illegible] one cares to [illegible] the [illegible] playwright uses, there is no getting away from the fact that it is [illegible] interesting [illegible] is underlain [illegible] poor woman [illegible] fellow [illegible] [illegible] heart; his impassioned plea melts the most impervious. It may not all be as they do things in a real Court, but who cares? The moment is intense, and there need be no scrupulous weighing of petty things."

Flickers From the Footlights.

"The Easiest Way," which opened at the Hollis Street Theatre in Boston, March [illegible] with Frances Starr in the leading role, has been ordered "out" by the withdrawal of the theatre license and the prohibiting of its production on a Boston stage. The mayor and officials claim it is not up to the moral standard necessary for theatrical performances. "The Easiest Way" has had runs in every large city in the country and has now met its first objection.

Next season vaudeville will lose Harry Fox and the Millership Sisters, as A. W. Woods has engaged them to appear in the support of Eddie Foy.

After a season of 51 consecutive weeks throughout the country, Minnie Maddern Fiske has returned to New York to begin an engagement in "Becky Sharp."

Henry B. Harris has signed contracts with Edgar Selwyn for a new play which will have its New York premiere the latter part of September. It will have a preliminary try-out in Los Angeles, where it will be seen for one week with a local stock company. The play deals with a much mooted Oriental question.

A new play by Margaret Mayo, author of "Polly of the Circus," and "Baby Mine" will be produced in Rochester on Easter Monday. Her latest work is called "Behind the Scenes" and deals with stage life.

"Love and Politics" written by Joe Howard will open in Milwaukee, April [illegible]. After its Milwaukee engagement the show will go to the Princess theatre in Chicago for a run.

GRANDMA'S ADVICE.

Many articles of wearing apparel, table linens, bedding, towels and other materials are ruined long before their time. If these things did not have to be washed they would wear much longer, but the common, strong, yellow soaps so generally used, are full of resin and free alkali that rot and eat into the fabrics, causing them to tear with the slightest strain.

Just try Hewitt's Easy Task Soap—made of cocoanut oil, borax, naphtha and clean tallow. It handles the dirt in a hurry, but doesn't harm fabrics, and it costs but a nickel.

"The Merry Widow" is Revived in St. Louis.

The following is a clipping from the St. Louis Republic with regards to the revival or rather re-appearance there of "The Merry Widow." This is the same company which appears at the Auditorium theatre on next Wednesday night.

"There is little appreciable difference between 'The Merry Widow,' which opened its fourth St. Louis engagement at the Shubert last night and the three which have preceded it in this city. Save in one important respect the cast is exactly the same.

"Frances Cameron, who previously sang Sonia in St. Louis, is again the Merry Widow. The interest of Danilo, Mr. Brian included, George Damerel still sings, dances and acts the Prince with the gay abandon which puts his enaction of the role above that of all others seen in this city.

"Harry Burgess is rather notably good as Popoff, much better than his predecessors in the part in St. Louis. Arthur Wooley plays up to and above the very best precedents of Nish.

"In one important regard the present production is better than those that preceded it in St. Louis. That is in the part of De Jolidon, who in this case is a singer well known in St. Louis—Forrest Stackford, the possessor of a really beautiful, timbrous tenor, which he manages with the utmost artistry. After hearing other De Jolidons one revels in Mr. Stackford in the part.

"'The Merry Widow,' like Hamlet, needs no explanation or exploitation. That it is the greatest musical comedy ever written goes without saying. Having seen the original American cast with Donald Brian and Ethel Jackson, one can unhesitatingly declare that Miss Cameron and Mr. Damerel are infinitely to be preferred in the leading roles.

"To the credit of Mr. Savage be it said that he keeps the investiture, the supernumeraries, the chorus girl and the costumes up to the very freshest and most advanced condition of excellence. So while this is the fourth visit of 'The Merry Widow' to St. Louis it is also its very best as far as singing, acting, dancing and investiture goes.

"Doubtless this wonderful comic opera, or musical comedy, will continue to visit St. Louis for endless years to come. One can only express the hope that it will always be as well produced and invested as it is today. Then it will be 'The Merry Widow' at its best."

Harry Burgess, who played Khadja with the company seen here last year is this year playing Popoff, while another company of last year's show to be recognized in this year's production is Arthur Wooley as Nish.

Rose Stahl in her new piece "Maggie Pepper" is daily taxing the seating capacity of the Illinois theatre in New York. Miss Stahl is credited by many as being America's most capable comedienne.

Earl Foreman, who for several years has been playing the piano at various picture shows in the city, but who the last year has been with the Empire theatre, left this week for Findlay to play in a theatre there.

An announcement which will interest the musical contingent of the city is that of the appearance here on April 14, of the Ohio State University Glee Club.

HOGS AND ALFALFA.

Alfalfa, according to one of the most intelligent farmers in Kansas, is the best money-making crop. The seed is not raised much in the eastern part of the state, as it grows better where there is drier weather. Where rains are frequent the crop will keep growing and does not run to seed so well as in the western and drier parts. In the western part farmers often have a seed crop that brings from $25 to $75 an acre. In the northeastern part alfalfa is grown on the hills as well as in the valleys. Hogs can be raised on it in Kansas, getting half of their growth from alfalfa, then fattening on a mixed diet of that product and corn, for two and a half cents a pound, gross. This allows for a fair rental for the alfalfa pastures and the hay. Cases of hog cholera are rare where the farms are free from mud holes. When his hogship is dry, he will drink the scum from the mud holes. Hogs need fresh water to keep them from burning up upon a steady corn fed diet. They should have grass during the grass season. The old-fashioned way, still common, was for the farmer to throw his corn out from the crib to the whole herd. This custom produced worms and cholera. Soft coal, pounded up and fed to the hogs, will cut the worms and save a herd from cholera, if given in time. A farmer with an alfalfa pasture for his hogs in summer and with the hay for them in winter will raise hogs for half what it costs him to feed corn alone. Fed alfalfa, the porkers will wean themselves in three weeks.—Editorial in Collier's for April 1.

A VISIT TO SPAIN

(By Miss Mary A. Sprague.)

II.

We were in Valladolid four days, a city of sixty thousand inhabitants, no one of whom remains except from necessity. Our hotel was the Moderno and our windows looked down upon the Plaza de la Constitucion, also rechristened long after its birth. It was the focus of a less stringent city life than in its days of autos da fe, and in a recent effort at rejuvenation had become the terminus of a trolley line. If I were using the ordinary language employed in describing all things Spanish I would say that great cars emblazoned with the arms of Leon and Castile were drawn through the city by balls of fire; that their sides were of crystal, their perfumed cushions of rich velvet from eastern looms, studded with gems; that Castilions of noble blood served as charioteers at whose slightest touch sweet bells tinkled and globes of light flashed and disappeared within; while mysterious music rose from beneath the wheels as they swept round the palace wherein Ferdinand married Isabella. In the archives of Simancas hard by there are thirty millions of documents couched in such terms. But being of plainer speech I will only say that trains fresh from the mint ran at intervals of twenty minutes empty of passengers save when Miss Fullerton and I took a ride.

When the sun came out about noon each day hundreds of the citizens gathered in the plaza to leeward of the wind. All wore caps and blanket shawls in hues of grey and brown, the tone of all things Castilion, while the patches on their trousers were a record of all their previous possessions. These were the men who later in the season worked in the desolate plain described as fertile in the kindly guide books.

Valladolid was the home of Cervantes. A statute of him stands in a square in which it is the least lifeless object, and we looked long at the semblance of a man who from such a spot could send merry words around the world. Not far away was the house in which Christopher Columbus died. We were conducted to these points by a persistent little girl who to show that she understood us, pounded on a building and said "Casa, house!" To our astonishment and her advantage, as it was the first English word we had heard in Valladolid.

Later in our stay as we were sauntering in a cold arcade we were pleasantly accosted by a lady and gentleman who asked in English if they could be of service to us. Next they invited us to walk home with them, and we were presently ushered into a cheerful apartment lined with books. Here over a cup of tea they told us they had lived in Valladolid for twelve years; that they were missionaries from London, and conducted a protestant "Collegio para Ninas" in the street below. And it appeared that our pilot of the day before was one of the ninas of this school. I might have thought their effort at revival also futile, but like the street cars it served two strangers well. Our spirits rose at the encounter and their kindness quite changed the complexion of a pessimistic hour.

On the first train scheduled to reach Madrid we traversed the plain of Old Castile for the third time. It is hardly fair to visit any man's land with a critical eye in January, so ashamed of my first impressions of this vain country, I tried to modify them on a third review. I found the soil unequal in quality and there was a system of irrigation introduced by the Moors which made the better tracts productive—the whole ranging from actual desert wholly uninhabited to good wheat land. I also saw that each station had its carefully tended tree as ours have calias beds, and that there were pitcheries here and there like those of Southern France. It was not impossible then for trees to grow; which shifted my reflections on the sail to deflection upon the people. For not only is it claimed that there was once a verdant land covered with oaks and elms and reduced by exhaustion, by pillage and the sword to stony plains and sunburst hills; but neither have subsequent generations done much to redeem it.

As we crossed the Guadarrama range, this time successfully, there were no signs of snow plows or even scrapers, but gangs of men armed with shovels stood aside for us to pass and huge piles of snow attested the work they had been doing in the cuts.

If the poverty of Castile was a surprise, the wealth of Madrid was no less so. It is a great modern city of the size and outward type of Boston, while the rest of Spain is mediaeval. The Royal Palace is unsurpassed in pretention. The Ministry of War is impressively housed amid an expanse of flower beds. The Ritz hotel is finer than the one in the Place Vendome. The Museo del Prado has the best work of Murillo and Velasquez; while the new postoffice suggests the hope that the four-fifths of the people who have not learned to write may yet do so. In the center of the great plateau it has no natural advantages. It is a political creation and its present activity dates only from the construction of its railways. If it seems to have absorbed the entire wealth and talent of the peninsula it still tries to make good use of them, and we hear that its charities are excessive. Certainly it has no busy task in transforming a worn out nation with obsolete ideals into a prosperous industrial people.

We made but one excursion from Madrid and that was to the Escorial thirty miles away in the rock-strewn uplands of the Sierras. Nothing could exceed the bleakness of the region viewed in detail but arrived at our destination thousands upon thousands of these acres were spread before us in a sublime sweep of earth and sky. The Escorial, an uninteresting pile of masonry, apart from the view, is now chiefly used as a burial place for Spanish royalty. Always a monastery rather than a palace one wing still remains in the hands of a diminished brotherhood who conduct a school restricted to secular education. But the interest of visitors centers in the cell in which Philip II. passed the last fourteen years of his life, which proves to have been no cell at all. It is a fine apartment with alcoves opening off it which gives color to this fiction. Above all it has three large windows commanding the magnificent prospect, with teraces and gardens full of sunshine and roses below—an abode of majesty and peace for which he was illfitted. Near by there is now a school of engineering and one of forestry. The students play ball on the esplanade and shout at each other over the hedges of box. Possibly they may yet sprout a few acorns where no oaks have been for a thousand years.

There are five grades of trains on the main line north and south through Spain; the mixed train carrying freight, the mail train, the express, the rapid and the train de luxe, and all but the latter have cars with compartments marked for first, second and third class passengers. Everybody may travel behind the same engine according to his pocket and wide is the range of prices. Indeed, everybody does travel on that basis, both as regard his tickets and his hotels, with great common sense and frankness. And beside first, second and third class tickets there are other variations. The train carrying a restaurant car demands an extra fee or supplement. Then there are the kilometric tickets of which no single ones are sold for less than two thousand kilometres, and circular tickets issued by every country within its own domain, to say nothing of the combinations made by Cook. Thus far we had traveled only by the express or the rapids, with no occasion to make inquiries regarding the trains de luxe. These carry sleeping cars only and are the only trains carrying sleping cars. Their time tables are arranged for as much night travel as possible, and beside the price of a berth, which is five dollars a night, a supplement of at least ten per cent is required to the ordinary first class ticket wihch are only good upon the other rains. For instance a first class kilometric ticket such as ours, costs forty dollars from Paris to Seville, while by the train de luxe it is sixty-nine, and I have heard that a third-class passenger could make the journey for about twelve. And there is a further distinction regarding the rate of speed for while the mixed and mail trains make only about fifteen miles an hour the trains de luxe make twenty-five, the express and rapids something between. For reasons best known to the initiated the trains de luxe are well patronized through the two Castiles and being somewhat initiated ourselves by this time, we thought of trying them southward from Madrid; but on applying at their office (always a city office distinct from the railroad window) we found that the train de luxe between Madrid and Granada (our next destination) only ran once a week. Between Madrid and Seville they run nightly, but those are the only two points in Spain that supply affluent patrons.

With no time to wait for the next one, five days hence, we left Madrid in the evening, trusting to luck for such comforts as we had heretofore found on the express. A compartment by ourselves was easily secured and pillows rented at twenty cents each, and very nice clean pillows they were, but our furs and rugs barely sufficed for the temperature of a car heated by cylinders of hot water shoved in at irregular intervals from nightmare stations. An English woman joined us somewhere going to meet her husband who had charge of lead mines in the Sierras. She was a cheerful acquisition while she stayed and the way she preserved her coiffure from disarrangement softens in my memory the rigors of the night. In the cold grey dawn we had a cup of coffee at the fonda at Baeza.

We were out of the Castiles by this time but the plateau had only changed for mountain altitudes and the poverty of the country and its people glared in the clear crisp air of the advancing morning. At Mareda where we again changed cars my dismay became acute and I retired from the car window in despair. If Spain has much to remember it has still more to forget.

The theory of perpetual summer so survives through the long winter in this land of phantasmagoria that the houses are everywhere built without chimney save for cooking purposes. The inhabitants therefore come out with every glint of sunshine. They toddle out, leap out, stalk out, totter out according to their years and remain in evidence while the sunshine lasts. On the afternoon of our arrival at Granada the citizens were all ranged upon the clay sidewalks from which they watched the various vehicles bump over ruts and mudholes. Even here the last quarter of a mile of our ascent toward the red walls of the Alhambra was so slippery with ice that we arrived on foot, our cabrialet bringing up the rear with the luggage. But from that moment with the higher temperature the edge was taken from our sympathies and our interest lost its melancholy tinge.

The Washington Irving Hotel is not in the town but on the mountain side close to Alhambra itself, and although superseded by a much finer house is still patronized by good Americans. It was here that we met, within an hour, the party from the steamship Cedric with whom our lot was henceforth happily cast.

VERIFY IT.

The Proof Is In Newark, Almost at Your Door.

The public statement of a Newark citizen is in itself strong proof for Newark people, but confirmation strengthens the evidence.

Here is a Newark citizen who testified years ago that Doan's Kidney Pills relieved sick kidneys and now states the cure was permanent. Can any sufferer from kidney ills ask better proof? You can investigate. The case is right at home.

C. W. Manville, 32 Locust street, Newark, O., says: "My former public statements regarding Doan's Kidney Pills still hold good. Three years ago I suffered from pains and lameness through the small of my back and was caused annoyance by a kidney weakness. Doan's Kidney Pills proved their superiority by restoring me to good health and correcting every symptom of kidney complaint after other remedies had failed. My cure has been a permanent one."

Boys Use Phonograph To Call Home the Cows

Monroe, Wis., April 1.—The phonograph through the ingenuity of a couple of boys in this neighborhood, has become a thing of usefulness as well as amusement.

After the novelty had worn off, the boys in question had cast aside the "Canned" songs and funny talks and gone back to checkers. But they found that doing the chores seriously interfered with the game. One of them remembered they could talk into the records and have the talk come out just like it went in.

So between moves each called into the machine, "Come Boss, come Boss." Then they put the phonograph out facing the pasture and turned it loose. The cows came home.

Midnight in the Ozarks.

and yet sleepless Hiram Scranton, of Clay City, Ill., coughed and coughed. He was in the mountains on the advice of five doctors, who said he had consumption, but found no help in the climate, and started home. Hearing of Dr. King's New Discovery, he began to use it. "I believe it saved my life," he writes, "for it made a new man of me, so that I can now do good work again." For all lung diseases, coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, whooping cough, hay fever, hemorrhages, hoarseness or quinsy, it's the best known remedy. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by F. D. Hall, druggist.

BELLING OCCURS BUT NO MARRIAGE

Inspired probably by the suggestion of a would be practical joker, a number of children in the village of Hebron the other evening surrounded the home of a resident there and gave a rousing belling. As there had been no wedding in the home nor any intention of one of the strenuous endeavor on the part of the children was somewhat misplaced and brougth them nothing.

BADLY BRUISED BY BEING CAUGHT IN THE BELTING

Steve Slavich, a foreigner employed at the Wehrle company, had his right arm so badly splintered last Friday afternoon that it was found necessary to amputate it at the shoulder. The boy is about 18 years of age and is employed as a clean up man in the foundry. One of the belts around a pulley operating the line shafting had become loosened and the boy without authority took it upon himself to try to replace it with an iron pipe. He became entangled in the belting and was whirled over the shaft. He was badly bruised, over the entire body aside from the broken arm, and was rushed at once to the City Hospital where the arm was removed. His condition is satisfactory today.
